

Southern Rivers Fly Fishing

Based out of the picturesque township of Wanaka nestled at the foot of the Southern Alps, Southern Rivers Fly Fishing is perfectly situated amongst a diverse range of trout waters. Being one of the driest and warmest regions in New Zealand it boasts excellent dry fly sight fishing, also aiding this is water clarity that is second to none. Wild Brown and Rainbow trout thrive in this pristine environment.

Offering a wide range of fly fishing options Southern Rivers cater for all levels of anglers. Be it two hours of casting tuition, a unique night fishing experience or a week of back country fly fishing adventuring Southern Rivers will get you the most from your precious time in this trout fishing paradise. The guides at Southern Rivers Fly Fishing have vast local knowledge of the lower South Island and boundless enthusiasm that will take you a long way toward your dream fly fishing experience.

With an international airport situated just 50minutes drive from Wanaka, direct flights from Australia will put you right into the action.

Southern Rivers provide you with all the necessary gear requirements, lunches, refreshments and safe transport to and from your fly fishing venues. Just bring a positive attitude and a hunger for outdoor adventure.

Southern Rivers Fly Fishing operates a professional and safe business with emphasis put on originality, uniqueness and fun. They will carefully recommend options that are best suited to your ability and needs.
