

Brown Trout Fly & Tackle, Athol

Member of NZ Professional Guides Association.

45 Minutes from Queenstown Airport. Len Prentice is based on the banks of the famous "Mataura" river in Southland which is recognised as the best Brown Trout fishery in New Zealand.

Len has been guiding in his area now for 21 years and knows the area like the back of his hand. Within one hours drive he has approximately another 30 rivers, streams and lakes at his disposal.

Len Prentice Brown Trout Fly & Tackle

PO Box 1

Athol, Southland

New Zealand.

Member of NZ Professional Guides Association.

45 Minutes from Queenstown Airport. Len Prentice is based on the banks of the famous "Mataura" river in Southland which is recognised as the best Brown Trout fishery in New Zealand.

Len has been guiding in his area now for 21 years and knows the area like the back of his hand. Within one hours drive he has approximately another 30 rivers, streams and lakes at his disposal. Accomodation is no problem for you, his business associate operates a fully self contained backpacker style fishing lodge that sleeps 16 people in four bunk rooms. There are also 5 separate ensuites for campervans and caravans. He is situated 45 minutes drive south of Queenstown airport on the main Queenstown-Milford Sound Highway.

lenprentice@xtra.co.nz

